Convicted Walking Delegate Is Sentenced to Serve Two Years and Three Months for Extorting $500 from the Tiffany Company and Is Once More in Sing Sing.

Sam Parks arrived in Sing Sing Prison this afternoon. He was made to take a bath and then donned for the second time the prison garb. He will remain in the "idle gang" until he has been examined by the prison physician. He will be examined by Dr. Irvine to-morrow.

When he was in the prison before he was assigned to the brush-fibre industry, and he will probably be put at that work again if Dr. Irvine reports him to be in condition to do any work.

Sam Parks left the Tombs at 1,30 o'clock this afternoon to board a train for Sing Sing, where he will serve two years and three months on one conviction of extortion and two years and six months more on another.

Wearing an overcoat which hung in lines from his shoulders and with a white sweater ruffled about his waist, the convicted and now discredited yet, and to Mr. Ehrman, the United labor agitator left the Tombs in the custody of two deputy sheriffs and States Vice-Consul at Panama and now boarded a street car which would take them to the Grand Central Station.

No great army of sympathizing laboring men saw him off on this trip pectively that the de facto governmen to prison, as they did the last time. He passed out of the Tombs unnoticed. is recognized. He looked up and down the street, but there was not a friendly face in sight. SING SING BARBER FOILED.

Parks had hardly been locked in his cell in the Tombs when he called for the prison barber.

"That's a bum barber at Sing Sing," he said. "He nearly scalped me before and I don't propose to give him another chance at me. I guess he the Republic of Colombia and resumed wasn't a union barber.'

When the barber appeared Parks ordered him to clip his hair short and to remove his mustache. This was done in a few minutes, and when the tist opposition from its own people, has apron was lifted Parks's face was smooth and hollow, and the bumps and been established in the State of Panama scars on his head, the souvenirs of many fights, stood out in bold evidence of his past pugnacity.

Parks removed his boiled shirt and put on a white sweater. Then h turned to Warden Van De Car and said: "Let 'er go. I'm yours."

Parks was handcuffed to Joseph Hunt, who was handcuffed on his left side to Charles Werner. Both these men are convicted of burglary and Parks did not appear to relish the forced companionship.

At the Grand Central station thirty policemen under the personal com mend of Capt. Murtha were assembled. A crowd of about one hundred backmen, bootblacks and spectators had assembled around the Vanderbilt avenue entrance to the depot, and when the prison van hove in sight the newsboys set up a shout of "Here comes Parks!"

The policemen formed a double line in front of the entrance to the station and kept the crowd back.

Parks was loosened from the handcuffs that held him to Hunt and taken into the smoking-car of the train that left at 2.06 P. M. As soon as sovernment of their, own, republican in Parks settled down into the seat he lit a eigar, and in response to requests

"I have resigned as a delegate of Local Union No. 2, but I am still a member. Never again will I take an active part in labor affairs. I am going to serve my sentence and get it over with, and I am going to be a model prisoner.

"I have determined to take care of my health and come out of prison g well man.

"Boys," he said to the newspaper men, "I'm up against ft. Let me down as easy as you can."

COUNSEL PLEADS FOR CLEMENCY.

Parks was brought into Part IV. of the Criminal Court before Justice Newburger to-day by two deputy sheriffs and was greeted by his counsel, James W. Osborne and George Gordon Battle. Mr. Battle made the usual motions for a new trial and for a suspension of sentence, raying that the Court had erred in its instructions to the jury and that the indictment was faulty in that it alleged more than one crime and that the point on which Parks was convicted was not a crime. The metions were denied without comment.

"I have very little to say to this Court as to why clemency and mercy should be accorded this defendant. In the first place I would ask Your Hopor to consider the physical condition of the defendant; that he is a sick man and has been sick a long time and may not long survive.

**Secondly, this defendant may have had an idea when he accepted this money with which he was charged with having taken that he might have benefited the persons who gave it to him to clemency. He said:

"Secondly, this defendant may have had an idea when he accepted this money with which he was charged with having taken that he might have benefited the persons who gave it to him by relieving them of a trouble-some and expensive strike:"

"I have given this case a great deal of attention and most careful thought," said Judge Newburger in reply, "and I will say that the only mitigating circumstance which will be considered in passing sentence is the physical condition of the defendant. For that reason I do not propose to treat at length of the case. Therefore I sentence the defendant to serve two years and three months in the State's prison at Sing Sing."

Parks was unaffected. He was about to sit down again when the bailiffs took him by the arms and started him out of the court-room. He stopped a minute to say good-by to his counsel. Then he was taken back to his cell and was informed that he would be taken to Sing Sing this afternoon.

cell and was informed that he would be taken to Sing Sing this afternoon. NOT A FRIEND IN COURT.

In court when Parks was sentenced he was entirely deserted. Not a friend of his former legion appeared. Only his lawyers were there in his behalf, and their appeals for him were brief and uscless.
